REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

From every source we have cause for gratification in our Sunday School work. There is in our Methodism one thousand more than a year ago. A marked and healthy increase in the circulation of our literature. Also we are pleased to note the contemplated addition to the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University and a Chair of Religious Pedagogy and Sunday Schools, and indulge hope that the General Conference may take favorable action.

Your board gives its most hearty endorsement to the State Sunday School Secretary idea, and contemplates in a few weeks to have Brother McGlumphy in the field. The proposition from the Arkansas Conference, as suggested by Dr. Hamill, is that the state board be composed of six members of two from each Conference and your board has recommended Rev. H. M. Bruce and Capt. C. C. Henderson as its representatives. To finance this work we suggest that each preacher take one or more shares at $5.00 each. As this executive board will have the entire management and the secretary will carry out their plans we feel sure that new impetus and life will be added to this greatest of all work.

To secure a loyal, intelligent and spiritually aggressive membership it is necessary first of all to have wide awake, well-informed teachers and these cannot be had by our present methods.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Your Committee on District Conference Journals make report as follows:

The Journals of three (3) of the District Conferences, viz: Pine Bluff, Little Rock and Arkadelphia, were not before us. We examined carefully all the others of the Conference and offer the following words of commendation and criticism upon them:

1. The Prescott District.—We find this Journal well kept. The marginal index is full and the handwriting neat. We note, however, that the president of the Conference did not sign the minutes.

2. Texarkana District.—The secretary, in our opinion, makes too free use of abbreviations. He wrote "Sec." for secretary, "Conf." for conference, "Alt." for alternates, etc. Also a rather unusual item of proceeding was announced at the end of all the sessions, viz: "The Conference stood adjourned, until the last session when this thing was done 'sine die'." In the judgment of your committee the secretary made a mistake in not recording the business of the Conference in the order of their proceeding. The reports of all the committees are recorded at the last as an appendix without so stating. The penmanship and paragraphing of this Journal are neat, and in the main, correct. While there are many imperfections there is unmistakable care to make a correct record.

3. Monticello District.—As your Committee sees them, it would weary this Conference for us to recite all the errors and imperfections of this Journal. First it is innocent of a marginal index. There is no means of determining from any page the session to which the record belongs. There is great liberty taken in the use of abbreviations. As an example, the business of the Conference is obscured by such as the naming of three brethren as being "appointed as a Com. to Rec. for Adm. into the Trav'l Con." This secretary makes a record for brevity as well as obscurity. So he states at the close of one of the sessions: "Benediction by — ?" Throughout the sessions of the Conference he persists in stating that so and so "was announced to preach," instead of recording these items as reports of the Committee on Public Worship. The secretary conveniently disposes of the roll of members by stating that "The names of the members present were noted."

Since the secretary records the preaching services of each day in their proper places and since he shows such careless haste in completing the work, we are astonished to find that a page of the record is set apart to a record of the preaching services and the preachers of the session. This we regard as improper.

Your Committee is of the opinion that it is proper to record the proceedings of the District Conference in the order in which they are transacted. This applies also to the roll of members.

4. Camden District.—We commend this Journal as a model of neatness and orderly arrangement.

Signed by the Committee,

A. P. FEW,
E. F. WILSON,
G. N. CANNON,
L. B. LEIGH.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Epworth League Board wishes to recommend the following:

1. That wherever a competent manager can be found, our children be organized into Junior Leagues. If there be no competent manager let one be educated in this work.
2. That wherever there are a half-dozen christian young people, they be organized into a League.
3. That the Presiding Elders invite the young people of each District to meet with them in a special League meeting of one day during each District Conference.
4. For the better organization of our District Leagues we recommend that the chairman of this committee be empowered to appoint a secretary in each district to assist in its organization.
5. We would urge the reading of the Epworth Era and the reading courses published by the Epworth League Board.
6. That the organization of Mission study classes be effected wherever practicable.
7. That the Summer Institute at Searcy and the Young People Missionary Assembly of the Southwest at Siloam Springs be patronized by our young people.

J. M. WORKMAN, President.

T. O. OWEN, Secretary.

LEAGUE REPORT NO. 2.

Resolved, That we request the members of this Conference to unite in a conference of Epworth Leaguers at the time and place to be announced,

And that a Conference Epworth League organization be then and there formed.

3. That the following committee, Jesse J. Craig, T. O. Owen and J. M. Workman be authorized to arrange for and effect said organization.

BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

From a small but sound and stirring book on "Christianity and The Nation," by Bishop Galloway, we read that—

"When Columbus touched the shores of San Salvador Luther was a child of nine years old. All Europe was yet under ecclesiastical and civil bondage to the Church of Rome. The papacy was still supreme in Church and State. True, the forces of revolt were slowly forming, but they were waiting for a leader. The dying voice of John Huss was echoing over the continent. Across the channel Wycliff's English Bible was gradually working the overthrow of ecclesiastical and political despotism. His scattered ashes only symbolized the triumphant spread of the doctrines he so fearlessly preached in life. Thus a way was being prepared for another 'prophet unto the nations,' and the humble monk became the intrepid and masterful leader of a movement that had 'centuries in its history.' From a cloister came this divinely accredited apostle, an open Bible in his hand, girded with power, and armed with pen of fire and tongue of flame. He stirred to its stillest depths the slumbering conscience of nations."

From the same book we take this paragraph:

"On the rocky summit overlooking the bay where the 'Mayflower' first anchored, a magnificent monument has been erected. That colossal statue is at once a miracle, a parable, and a prophecy; a miracle of artistic genius, a parable of Christian civilization, and a prophecy of increasing national glory. On the corners of the pedestal are four figures in a sitting posture representing Law, Morality, Freedom, and Education. Standing far above, on the lofty shaft of granite, is a majestic figure symbolizing Faith, holding an open Bible in one hand, and, with the other uplifted, pointing far away to the throne of God. What a sublime conception! How true to the facts of our heroic history! That open Bible is the Magna Charta of America."

We thank the Bishop for these two splendid texts for a brief exhortation.

It is related that Queen Victoria, when asked by a visiting African chieftain, "What is the secret of England's greatness?" replied, as she held out to him a copy of God's Word, "This is the secret of England's greatness." The Bible is the charter of salvation and the foundation of the liberty of nations.

Wickliffe with his pen, Tyndal with his press, Luther with his theses, and the Pilgrim with his Bible in his hand, prepared the way for the present peace, prosperity, and progress of the great nations which they represent.

And in so far as we hold out the open Bible to other lands and peoples, in that degree are we helping them to a similar glorious civilization.

A necessary step before any tribe or nation can carry on commerce with civilized countries is the formation of language into a definite spoken and-written means of interchange of thoughts above the plane of the simple and narrow life of the savage. And history shows that to the missionary translator of the Bible is owed this debt for the gift of a language adaptable to the needs of commerce and of civilization. Thus, with the gift of Life in God's Book, goes the gift of a real language to a people receiving it.

A fundamental part of all missionary work is the furnishing of God's Word in the native tongue of the people who are to be reached with the Gospel. Bibles, Testaments, or portions are now prepared in most of the principal languages and dialects of the world.

The avowed purpose of the American Bible Society has always been to print and publish, in parts and entire, the Word of God, and not for profit; also to circulate the Scriptures to the needy throughout the world. These words, "not for profit," appeal to the heart of every lover of the Bible.

The "Word of God" is offered to the world by a Christian organization supported by the churches, at the bare price of its production; and to thousands of needy ones, who have not the cost price, the American Bible Society has freely given the Scriptures annually throughout all its eighty-nine years of work as the "servant of the churches."

During this past year nearly two million volumes of Scriptures and portions have been issued, about one-half being put out by the Bible House, New York, and the other half by the Society's agencies abroad, being printed on mission presses in China, Japan, Siam, Syria, and Turkey.

More than one million of the total of the year's issue have been printed in different foreign languages and dialects, and sent to the missionary fields in lands afar.

He knew whereof he spoke who said "The American Bible Society is the twin propellor of missions." The American Bible Society is doing a world-wide Bible work. It has covered a large part of the five great continents. It belongs to no denomination, yet it belongs to all. Like John the Baptist it prepares the way, and when the denominations reach the field it keeps step shoulder to shoulder as a "true yoke-fellow" with the great missionary forces of the world, giving supplies of the ever-needed Book of Divine Law and Love, tendering the services of its workers to translate the Word of God, and to scatter it, "the Seed," broadcast over the fields.

There are five field agents in the United States, located as follows: Boston, Mass., Spartanburg, S. C., Morristown, Tenn., Cincinnati, Ohio, and St. Paul, Minn., and one agent among the colored people in the South. There are twelve foreign agents in countries outside the United States, four in Asia, four in the Americas, and four in the islands of the sea. Our opportunity and our responsibility were never so great as now.

CHINA—The greatest pagan nation of modern times is at the parting of the ways. Shall we give it the Book that makes Christian nations?

That the vast empire is now in a critical, formative stage is evident. From the viewpoint of rival nations, the ancient "Land of Sinim" may, perhaps, be the "yellow peril," but for the Christian forces of the world, it is rather the "golden opportunity."

The new enlightenment and liberality of the Chinese government is shown by the action of its tariff commission, by which now, for the first time, there is no tax or duty on Bibles. This has been specially helpful in view of the greatly increased circulation of the Scriptures during the past year, which was more than 450,000 volumes, surpassing that of the previous year by over 150,000. Of these, more than ever before, were whole Bibles. The increase would have been much greater if there had been more funds available.

JAPAN—"There is no doubt that the Bible is being read and studied there as never before."

In this small but important country the national Bible societies of England and Scotland have been united with the American Bible Society in a joint agency under the management of the Bible Society's Committee for Japan. "If the willingness; yes, readiness, of the people to investigate and study Christianity is a favorable condition, we are certainly laboring at a time when the opportunity is great."

Mr. Katoaka, elected and reelected president of the lower house of the Legislature, was one of the most prominent Christians in Japan. In a public address he referred to his conversion sixteen years before as a result of studying the Bible. Thus, the illuminating power of the Holy Spirit and of God's Word, in leading this man to the light of truth, was the start and the center of ever-widening circles of good. His recent death is a great loss, but his influence still lives.

A movement whose outcome will be watched with great interest is that of the foundation of the "Independent Filipino Church." While it adheres to the general doctrines and forms of the Catholic Church, it leaves its clergy free to marry, and it recommends the Bible to the people.

In Cuba a hopeful work is being done among that kindly and teachable people. More than 17,000 volumes have been disposed of within one year. The Book which makes nations, the Bible, must be put into the homes of the Cubans if that young republic, the ward of the United States, is to build aright. The voice of duty calls especially and loud to the Southern Methodist Church, for to it Cuba looks with tearful eyes and longing hearts for religious training.

Through the Divine blessing upon the giving of the Word of Life, the progress of God's kingdom has been so great during the past year that the problem now is, how to supply the ever-increasing numbers eagerly waiting to receive and to search the Scripture. It has come to pass that many have had to be denied who ought to have received the Word of God. Unless there are increased gifts from God's people, the society, "the Silent Missionary" for Gospel work the world over, is likely to be seriously crippled. The society formerly depended much on local auxiliary societies, but various causes have combined to lessen the number and diminish the work of these societies. In Arkansas they have nearly all disbanded. In a few older States only are they alive and zealous.

The Society finds itself for the first time in a quarter of a century in debt. Its Reserve Surplus is entirely used up. During the last four years it has drawn upon this surplus on an average of $30,000 a year, in order that its far reaching missionary work at home and abroad might not be suddenly crippled. Now this surplus is exhausted and the Society is in debt. Legacies, formerly so large and constant, have ceased to be a dependable source of income. The present annual contributions from life members, donors, churches, and auxiliaries, together with the income from trust funds, are insufficient for the work of the society, and this work should everywhere be enlarged, and nowhere diminished.

Two great truths should arouse us to helpful interest in the work. First, the churches must have Bibles Given them for their Mission work. Second, the Churches must contribute to the American Bible Society that Bibles May be Given.

For each denomination to prepare its own Scriptures for its missions would be a vast and most unwise expenditure of time and money.

Dr. Barton, secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, says, "The American Board of Foreign Missions could no more carry on its work without the aid of the American Bible Society than a ship could sail without a compass, or a bird could fly with a single pinion."

Rev. R. A. Beard, Eastern Secretary of the Congregational Home Mission Society, says, "The American Bible Society is the strong right arm of all missionary societies."

A gift to the American Bible Society is a gift to the Missionary work of the M. E. Church, South.

15 cents pays for a Bible, 5 cents for a Testament, and yet some of the pastors in the Little Rock Conference have not brought up that much. A two-cent Gospel given to a hungry soul may lead to his salvation, yet a few of these preachers have not raised even that pitiful sum.

Brethren of the Little Rock Conference, let us no longer neglect this great cause. Neglect may be more hurtful than active opposition. The great light is in our hands, will we withhold it from those who sit in darkness, by shutting our eyes to the needs of the noble society which sends it forth?

" Shall we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we to souls benighted
The Lamp of Life deny?"

It has been well said that the "Aim of God's children everywhere should be, "The whole Bible for the whole world."

Let up purpose and perform our part in hastening the glorious consummation.

It is with sincere regret that we have to report a falling off in the contributions this year to the American Bible Society of more than thirty per cent. from last year.

We call attention to the recent action of this Conference in which it was voted that every pastor preach once a year on the importance of reading and studying the Bible, and take a collection for the American Bible Society.

We also recall the fact that several years ago this Conference named February in each year as the month in which to take the collection for the American Bible Society.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

1st. That the American Bible Society is hereby requested to consider the advisability of discontinuing the publication of the American Standard Revised Version of the Bible.

2nd. That "Bible Day" be observed during the month of February each year, during which month every preacher in charge shall take a collection for the American Bible Society at each appointment.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance rejoices at the splendid advance made in this state toward the exclusion of the sale of intoxicating liquors, and the suppression of gambling. In the good work done we recognize the Anti-Saloon League as a powerful factor and we approve the work of this organization.

We recommend that every pastor preach on temperance in the month of August, 1906.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, We have received a petition signed by many members of several denominations of the state asking that this Conference designate three members to co-operate with a like committee from each of the other denominations who, as a state executive board, shall devise the plans and direct the work in behalf of civic righteousness against the saloon and its allied evil forces, therefore be it

Resolved, By this Conference, that we comply with the request in said petition and hereby suggest Rev. W. F. Andrews, Geo. Thornburg and C. C. Henderson as the three members to serve on said committee of co-operation from this Conference.

W. C. WATSON.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

To the Little Rock Conference:

Your Committee carefully considered the documents and statements presented by the representatives of the Sunday League of America.

We are gratified to learn of the great Congress held in this interest at St. Louis last year which attracted men of eminence from all parts of the world and which produced a new literature on the subject. We believe that the documents published by the Sunday League of America should have a wide circulation and that their reading will bring the best results.

We recommend that Lord's Day Week (the first following Easter) be observed by our entire Conference and hope that every pastor will preach on this great question at that time.

We rejoice in the good work being done all over the land by the Sunday League of America and are glad that Dr. Thomson, its general manager, who so ably addressed our Conference on Thursday, expects to give a few weeks the coming year to our state to help the development of public sentiment and we hope his visit may result in a State League to co-operate with all the good citizenship to secure law, order and righteousness throughout our commonwealth. Our American laws and civilization must be sustained and we welcome the work of the Sunday League of America to help us to that result.

Signed,

C. C. GODDEN, Chairman,
J. R. HARVEY, Secretary,

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

I.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

Dear Brethren:—The General Board of Education in its report for this year makes the following showing:

During the year 1904-05 our church schools erected 32 new buildings; an increase of 8 over the preceding year.

The cost of these was $434, 558; an increase of $198,058.

The value of all grounds and buildings was $8,237,999; an increase of $1,153,763.

The value of gifts and legacies $291,373; an increase of $154,845.

This shows how our church is waking up to the great educational needs, yet the demand is increasing everywhere at home and abroad.

The assessments on our Conference for the coming year are: For Board and Correspondence School, $321.00; for Paine and College, $321.00.

II. THE CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

The work done by this school is most gratifying, and we most heartily commend this school to our young preachers and all our undergraduates, and urge them to take advantage of this work.

III.

We most heartily endorse the movement looking to the establishing of a Woman's College of high grade somewhere in the central southern states, and ask the Bishop to appoint a committee of five ministers and five laymen to co-operate with the other conferences in this movement.

IV. HENDRIX COLLEGE.

This College is making rapid progress. Already she has 171 enrollment, about the same as all last year.

There have been 12 conversions and 12 reclamations thus far in the year's work.

We recommend:

1. That the financial agent of the college give as much of his time as possible to raise funds to pay debt on the college.
2. That the Board of Hendrix College be empowered to increase the members of the Board by four from each conference.
3. That L. B. Leigh and J. H. Riggin be elected to succeed themselves as members of the Board of Trustees.
4. That this Conference request President Stonewall Anderson, Prof. J. H. Hinemon and Dr. C. C. Godden to call an educational conference for the purpose of unifying and properly equipping our educational work in this state.
5. The Board assesses the Conference $1,500.00 for Hendrix.
6. The value of the property is $90,000.00. The endowment is $40,000.00.

V. GALLOWAY COLLEGE.

This institution, with 27 officers and teachers, men and women well prepared to do the work assigned them, and with 304 pupils enrolled, is doing magnificent work. The Board of Trustees thought it best not to build the additional buildings so much needed to accommodate the increasing patronage until the debt shall have been paid, so this great movement is hampered with debt. We now owe not more than $9,000.00 on the property.

We recommend that Rev. Jas. Thomas be re-elected to succeed himself as a member of the Board of Trustees. Also that Hon. H. A. Butler be re-elected to succeed himself as a member of the Board of Trustees.

The value of the property is $90,000.00.

VI. HENDERSON COLLEGE.

The report of the Board of Trustees show this magnificent institution is well equipped to do the work she is undertaking; with 20 officers and teachers, men and women of the best mold and finest training, this school can but succeed.

There are 173 students enrolled; 75 boys and 98 girls; of these 148 are Christians and only 25 are unconverted; 100 boys and girls are in Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. There have been 24 conversions and 12 reclamations in the student body this year.

The property is valued at $76,000.00.

We recommend:

1. That the retiring members of the Board of Trustees, namely, C. C. Henderson, A. Turrentine, H. L. Remmel, W. K. Ramsey and W. F. Evans, be re-elected, and that Jas. A. Buchanan be elected to take the place of E. H. McDaniel, deceased, and that A. O. Evans be elected to succeed C. J. Green, resigned.

2. We recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. C. Rhodes as agent for Henderson College.

3. We recommend that the name of E. H. McDaniel, a member of the Board of Trustees, be put on the memorial page of the Minutes.

VII. FORDYCE TRAINING SCHOOL.

This school is in a good, healthy condition. The enrollment is 110, 10 more than for the whole of last year. There are five officers and teachers, a good music department and all the work in fine shape. There is a need of $1,500.00 to purchase the dormitory property, valued at $5,000.00.

We recommend:

1. That the pastor of the church at Fordyce be appointed financial agent for the school and heartily commend him to the churches in the bounds of the Conference.

2. That we authorize the Board of Trustees to change the name of the school from the Little Rock Conference Training School to the Fordyce Training School.

VIII. STUTTGART TRAINING SCHOOL.

This school reports a healthful increase in attendance. The student body is mature and enthusiastic. Local patronage larger by far than ever before, showing that interest in the school is becoming deep seated. The literary men are degree men, one A. B., from Central College, Mo., one B. S., from the same institution, and one A. B., from Vanderbilt. The work done is worthy of graduates from these institutions. The school has a vocal and an instrumental department, both of which are gradually growing.

There are five officers and teachers in the faculty. In accordance with the provisions made last year by your Board of Education, the Trustees of this school have deeded property worth from $12,000 to $15,000 to the Little Rock Conference for a conference training school. Up to this time there are enrolled 75 pupils.

Your Board wants to hereby record its grateful appreciation of the princely liberality of Mr. J. I. Porter and others who have made the Stuttgart Training School plant an accomplished fact, which we believe has a career of great usefulness in the cause of Christian education within the bounds of the Little Rock Conference.

We recommend that the Trustees be authorized to change the name of the school to the Stuttgart Training School.

We recommend that R. R. Moore be reappointed Conference Secretary of Education.

A. TURRENTINE, Pres.,
R. R. MOORE, Sec.

IX. JOHN C. MARTIN EDUCATIONAL FUND.

WHEREAS, We believe that in all probability Mr. Martin has been providentially directed to the south with his great wealth for the accomplishment of good; therefore be it

Resolved, That we cheerfully give our moral endorsement, fraternal co-operation and Christian sympathy to the work done by the John C. Martin Educational Fund and we earnestly pray that this philanthropic movement may be blessed of God to the elevation of the negro race through a well trained, educated ministry, and also the education of the white people residing in sections incorporated in the plan.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

We have had before us the Fifty-ninth annual report of our Board of Missions, and it is with a deep sense of gratitude to God that we note a marked degree of success in every department of our work. We have had a considerable increase in membership in the foreign field, which numbers now over fifteen thousand. Including 67 working under the direction of the Women's Board, we now have a force of 245 missionaries in the field, and we have 94 native traveling preachers. Our church raised last year over $900,000 for missions. A bequest of $35,000 by the late Richard M. Scruggs of St. Louis, records the largest legacy ever received by our church for missions. We feel grateful to God for these indications of increasing liberality.

We note with pleasure the great success of our Missionary Training School, held at Nashville in January and February last, and we urge the preachers to co-operate in giving a wide circulation to the pamphlets which contain the addresses delivered for this school. They discuss the problems of the day, are twelve in number and sell at 60 cents for the series of twelve.

We desire to call attention of the pastors to the plan for quickening missionary zeal and intelligence among our young people by organizing mission study classes as provided by our Board. The plan is simple, inexpensive and effectual.

We regard "Go Forward" as the best medium through which information from the field can most directly reach the people. The price places it within the reach of all. We desire to pledge this Conference to its widest possible circulation.

We call attention that our Board furnishes a most excellent line of leaflets which can be had for distribution free of charge. A judicious use of these leaflets by our pastors can not help creating a more intelligent interest in missions.

We recommend that R. W. McKay be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary.

The Board makes the following appropriations and assessments for the ensuing year:

ARKANSAS METHODIST ORPHANAGE.

The Board of Trustees held its annual meeting at the Orphanage Oct. 25, 1905. There were present Rev. J. E. Godbey, Jas. Thomas, L. B. Stevenson, M. M. Smith, and Messrs. Geo. Thornburg and G. H. Kimball. The work of the past year was reviewed and found to be satisfactory. The resignation of Rev. J. M. D. Sturgis and wife as superintendent and matron was received and J. E. Godbey, Geo. Thornburg and G. H. Kimball were appointed as a committee to secure a new superintendent. They have secured the services of Rev. T. Fisackerly of the White River Conference, if it may be the pleasure of the Bishop who shall preside at that Conference to give him the appointment, which we hereby respectfully request.

J. E. GODBEY,
President Board of Trustees.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

Dear Brethren:—

We, your committee report as follows:—

We note with pleasure, from the data furnished us by the agents, that our Publishing House has enjoyed a considerable increase in business, the amount being given as $28,362.02, for the past nine months, as compared with the corresponding months of the previous year.

QUARTERLY REVIEW AND ADVOCATE.

Our Quarterly Review and Christian Advocate have a good circulation, yet when we consider the numerical strength of our great church, the circulation of these is far from what it should be.

We urge all our pastors and laymen to put more emphasis on the importance of our people reading these publications, and giving to them the circulation to which their merits entitle them.

We are glad to know that the Epworth Era is enjoying an increased circulation, and ask that it be placed in the hands of our young people everywhere.

We regard the "Go-Forward" as a most important journal, and one that is furnishing to our people just the information needed, and therefore, we commend it to all.

ARKANSAS METHODIST.

We believe the Arkansas Methodist is giving general satisfaction, and that this paper is even more necessary to the good of our Methodism than any other.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. A. C. Millar as one of the Editors, and Rev. J. R. Harvey as agent and Field Editor; Rev. T. H. Ware, T. D. Scott and Horace Jewell, as Publishing Committee.

Whereas, Bros. Anderson and Millar have a contract with our Publishing House by which they propose to furnish Arkansas Methodism with books and Sunday School literature, we recommend that our people patronize them, that they may be enabled to continue this line of business in our midst.

Your committee is advised that the Indian Mission Conference, held recently at Lawton, Oklahoma, instructed the Publishing Committee of their organization, the Western Christian Advocate, to consult with publishers of the Arkansas Methodist with reference to a consolidation of the two papers.

The editors and publishers of the Arkansas Methodist advise us that they do not feel at liberty to conclude any arrangement without first consulting their Arkansas constituency, and they are now, through your committee, asking instruction at your hands. We therefore recommend that the publishers be left free to make such arrangements as shall be deemed best for Arkansas Methodism.

B. B. THOMAS, Chairman.

T. P. CLARK, Secretary.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

We note with pleasure the growing interest upon the subject of Church Extension. We quote a statement from the General Secretary, "The enterprise and activity of our people in church building is shown by the statement in the general minutes that property in churches increased during the year $1,401,474. And by the fact that applications were before the board amounting to $137,220 in donations and $110,300 in loans. These applications represented enterprises amounting to over a million dollars."

We, your Conference Board, had before us applications for aid to the amount of $2,000 and had only $1,000 for distribution. We were profoundly impressed with the worthiness and urgent need in every case. Our assessment was $2,675.00, paid on same $2,056.52.

It is hoped in the view of the urgent calls for help that our Presiding Elders and Pastors will put the same emphasis on the cause of Church Extension as on Missions. And we here repeat the request of Dr. Wishner of the General Board that where loans have been made by the Board all possible emphasis be put upon the necessity of promptly fulfilling the engagement to return the money to the Board that it may be at their service for the aid of others.

We beg to insist upon the importance of keeping all our churches insured, and to stress this matter your Board has adopted a rule that hereafter no aid will be granted to rebuild any house which has been destroyed while uninsured.

Of the $1,024 your Board had on hand, the following grants have been made:

Pleasant Hill.....	$ 25 00
Custer's Chapel	25 00
Saratoga	120 00
McGehee.....	100 00
Humphrey	150 00

New Hope.....	20 00
Lannis Chapel.....	25 00
Hawley Memorial	200 00
Oak Grove	20 00
Scott Memorial	200 00
Morrell	65 00
Pump Springs.....	25 00
Ogden	25 00
Total	1000 00

The Board voted to the Secretary $10, and the Treasurer $5 for office expenses, leaving a balance on hand of $15.

The assessment on the Conference for the ensuing year is $2,675, the same as last year and is apportioned to the districts as follows:

Little Rock District	$ 500 00
Pine Bluff District	375 00
Camden District.....	400 00
Arkadelphia District	380 00
Monticello District	322 00
Prescott District.....	375 00
Texarkana District	323 00
Total.....	2675 00

Respectfully submitted,

LEWIS B. HAWLEY

Was born in Virginia, November 21, 1845. In childhood he came to Arkansas, and in early youth served in the Confederate army. He was converted and joined the church in 1867 and in 1868 was given license to preach. He was a local preacher several years, sometimes serving as supply. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Wightman at Pine Bluff in 1872 and elder by Bishop Keener at Arkadelphia in 1876.

He was received on trial by the Little Rock Annual Conference in 1876 and appointed to Richmond Circuit, and in 1877 to Richmond and Rocky Comfort. In 1878 he was admitted into full connection and appointed to Washington Circuit and returned in 1879. In 1880-81-82 to Fulton Station, in 1883-84 to Benton Station, in 1885-86-87 to Hope Station, in 1888-89 to Arkansas City, in 1890 to Hamburg Station, in 1891-92 to Arkansas City and Dermot, in 1893-94-95 to South Hot Springs, in 1896-97-98-99 to El Dorado, in 1900 to Des Arc and Devalls Bluff, in 1901-02 to Warren station, 1903-04 to Stuttgart station. Here he ended his ministry, ceasing at once to work and live, having nearly completed the twenty-ninth year of his itinerant labors, having always been effective and efficient, full of labors, abundant and fruitful. He died at Stuttgart, Nov. 9, 1905. His remains were taken to El Dorado and laid to rest in the churchyard where he had buried many during his long and fruitful ministry in that church.

He was an excellent preacher, a thoughtful student, an active pastor, a faithful husband and father, and a useful citizen, as well as a most valuable member of this conference not only as to his ministerial service but especially by his intelligent and helpful participation in the work of our conference sessions.

He was a member of the Joint Board of Finance for the last thirteen years and for ten years President of the Board. His co-laborers on that Board will bear witness with what zeal, fidelity, patience and unflagging devotion he looked after all the work of that Board; and how he carried on his heart the widows, orphans and broken down preachers for whom the Board cares. He was a man whom it seems we could ill afford to lose. If we are faithful we will meet him again.

J. H. RIGGIN.

REV. ALEXANDER AVERY.

The Rev. Alexander Avery entered into rest December 19, 1904, after reaching the ripe age of ninety-five years, four months and eight days. He was a traveling preacher for sixty-nine years. His life and ministry links us to the heroic days of Methodism in Arkansas, and reveals to us the character of the men needed for those days among the hardy pioneers who settled this state.

He wore a genial smile, possessed a sunny nature, warm heart, cordial spirit, and was always entertaining. Was a man and minister with true dignity of character without stiffness. Did not indulge in lightness and frivolity, but the exuberance of his social nature made him a delightful companion to all classes. There was a flexibility in him that enabled him to adjust himself to whatever class he was thrown among, and at once made him the leading spirit of the occasion. Physically he was rather small of stature, but compactly built and capable of great endurance. His black eyes sparkled with holy enthusiasm as, in after life, he recounted the trials and triumphs of his ministry in the early days of Arkansas. In his palmy days he was a terror to evil doers. His voice was mellow and musical, or like the piercing peals of thunder, as the occasion required. His face became radiant with heavenly light as he portrayed the immortal hopes awakened in us by the gospel of Christ. While his eyes flashed like angry lightning and his features became stern and awful as he described in awe inspiring language the awful doom of the lost. Then with muttering pathos and streaming eyes, with all the tenderness of the Christ-spirit, he besought sinners to flee the wrath to come. Whether on a mission to the negroes, among the semi-civilized Choctaw Indians, cooking his own scanty, rough fare, and often sleeping upon the ground, traveling large circuits, often swimming swollen streams and sleeping in the huts of the pioneers of the forest or traveling large districts on horseback, he was the same genial gentleman. No murmur of complaint ever escaped him. And during all the long weary years of waiting as a superannuated member of this body, lasting more than thirty years, he took a keen interest in all the affairs of the church, and especially in his own conference, and was always a friend and strong supporter of his pastor—even though that pastor was a mere boy. He reared a large family on a poor farm, receiving only a small annuity from the conference, and yet he set the younger members of this body a splendid example by his liberal and unselfish contributions to the various enterprises of the church.

He was twice married, first March 8, 1840 to Miss Rosanna Reed. She died in 1845. He married July 26, 1853, Miss Lucy Jane May. There were nine children born to this marriage, five of whom, with his devoted, grief-stricken wife, remain with us to mourn their great loss.

He was born in Johnson county, North Carolina, August 11, 1809, and grew to young manhood twenty miles from Raleigh, but removed with his parent to Gibson county, Tenn. In August, 1829 he was converted and joined the Methodist Church. Was licensed to exhort in May, 1833, and licensed to preach in August, 1836. Was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference in October, 1836, and appointed junior preacher on the Sandy circuit. He was transferred by Bishop Andrews in 1837 to the Arkansas Conference and appointed to the Marion Circuit. In 1838 he was appointed to Mound Prairie Circuit. In 1839-40-41 was sent as a missionary to the Choctaw Indians. He returned to Arkansas and served the Marion Circuit in 1843, Lagrange in 1844, Hempstead African Mission in 1845, Fayetteville Circuit in 1846, Oscela in 1847, Marion in 1848, was Presiding Elder on Pine Bluff District in 1849-50; Washington District 1851-52-53. He served Princeton Circuit in 1854; Hampton Circuit in 1855. He was supernumerary on Blue Bayou Circuit in 1856; Center Point Circuit 1857-58. He made effective and traveled Ozan Circuit in 1860-61-62. He was supernumerated at the Conference of 1862 and sustained that relation until the Conference of 1867. He traveled the Ozan Circuit in 1868-69. At the close of this year he was again superannuated, which relation he sustained until December 19, 1904, when he was transferred from Earth to Heaven.

T. H. WARR.

MRS. ROSALIE CARTER JENKINS.

Mrs. Rosalie Carter Jenkins, daughter of Lewis F. and Susan F. Carter, was born in Hempstead County, Arkansas, where the town of McNab is now located, on the 24th day of January, 1858. Her father was a soldier and died in the Civil War. The family moved to Mineral Springs, Ark., where her education was continued under the tutorship of Rev. T. W. Hays. She was first married to Dr. J. S. Cowling on the 10th day of December, 1879, Rev. B. Ward officiating. To this union one daughter was born, Zoe, now the wife of C. C. Cowling of Eudora, Ark. Dr. Cowling died February 17, 1885.

She was married the second time to Rev. A. D. Jenkins of the Little Rock Conference at Mineral Springs, Ark., November 25, 1890, Rev. B. G. Johnson officiating. To this union was born four children, two of whom, Lewis Carter and A. D. T., together with her husband, survive.

She was baptised and received into the M. E. Church, South, at Mineral Springs by Rev. B. G. Johnson in October, 1885.

In the various fields of responsible labor occupied by her husband as pastor and presiding elder, she bore her full part of care, responsibility and service. She was steadfast in her devotion as a Christian and Methodist. To her associates she was always a source of strength and inspiration. She had great faith in God and great confidence in prayer. She was a typical representative of the best culture and piety of the South. She manifested a keen interest in everything pertaining to the welfare of her church. She could say with the Psalmist "Thou has showed me great and sore troubles," and likewise, "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." Many things came into her life through sorrow's gate—gentleness, tact, sympathy, strength, beautiful traits of character, which seemed to find no other mode of entrance into life. Long for unclouded joy as we may, it still remains true that few of us would choose for our most valued friend one who has never suffered. The eyes that have not known tears must needs lack something of tenderness. The heart that has never been torn with anguish and loss, has never sounded its own depths, and cannot measure those of another. The soul grows strong through storm and conflict, if it ever grows strong at all, and, however sweet a nature may be, we find it incomplete and unsatisfying if it has never known the softening, hallowing touch of grief. There are dark pages in our lives where we would gladly have changed the story if we could. There are wounds that still ache and losses that even yet are hard to bear, but however we may feel about sorrow itself, there are few of us who would be willing to give up all that it brought and taught us to be just what we were before it touched us. There are some precious gains that come through sorrow's gate—a beautiful cluster of these gains came to our dear Sister Jenkins through this channel.

From the first she was impressed with the thought that she would not recover and thoughtfully arranged all of her affairs in view of her death. Calmly she entered the Valley of the Shadow on Friday night, October 27th, 1905, in the parsonage at Horatio, surrounded by her faithful husband and two little boys and loving friends. Her victory was glorious and complete. Her funeral was conducted by the writer in our church at Horatio, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. We drove to Mineral Springs and laid her body away Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. She is gone, but the fragrance of her memory will abide.

Mourn her no more! Around her peaceful brow
The soft celestial breezes gently blow;
From all earth's noontide heat she's sheltered now,
Neath trees of life, where God's own fountains flow.

For naught is lost, the treasures of the grave
Are safely held in an immortal trust;
And He who died His precious ones to save,
Will yet restore them from their bed of dust.

JAMES THOMAS.

MRS. ARRENA MILLS.

Mrs. Arrena Mills, wife of Rev. W. W. Mills and daughter of Sanford and Sallie Atchley, was born in Grant county, Arkansas, in 1876. She was converted under the ministry of Rev. J. V. Christmas when quite a girl and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Her life was a beautiful, consecrated, uncomplaining one, happily sharing the privations of an itinerant life, and with loyalty and devotion doing her duty to her family and the church.

She had a presentiment early in her sickness that she would never recover, but the Divine Presence so comforted and cheered her that she did not seem to suffer much physical pain. She died at Janssen during the present year, leaving one son and three little girls, together with her husband, to mourn their great loss. She is at rest in our home, sweet home, the home of our Savior and our God, and will bind with golden chains the hearts of her loved ones to that beautiful home beyond. God bless and comfort the husband and little ones in their loneliness.

THOS. H. WARE.

MRS. GEORGE RANDALL LASSETER.

Mrs. George Randall Lasseter, wife of Rev. W. F. Lasseter of the Little Rock Conference, was a native of Georgia. She was born and reared to womanhood in the parental home near LaGrange, Ga. She was about forty-nine years of age at the time of her death. When a child of nine years, she gave her heart to God and united with the church. She was married to Rev. W. F. Lasseter, July 3, 1895. She, with her husband, had entered with joy upon the work of a new conference year at Redfield. As far as men could see, all indications pointed to the happiest year in all their lives and ministry of love. The people had given her a cordial reception into their new parsonage home. The church and the community felt that they had a strong, noble Christian character in the wife of their pastor. She was happy in the work that fell to her lot. In the day of enlarging and growing influence, the summons of death came, and to her it was the voice of her Lord calling her to come up higher. Monday night, March 13, was the time of her translation. To her, to live was Christ, and death was an eternal gain. She was ready to stay or go, for she knew her Lord, and was known of Him. Sister Lasseter had a genuine Christian experience. Her life was hid with God in Christ. Everybody who knew her knew that she had been with Christ, for she had the Christly spirit. Our sister combined the elements of strength and sweetness. She loved like Mary and served like Martha. She bore a constant, consistent and unbroken testimony to her Lord by the life she lived. The life of such a woman is a priceless gift of God to the world. Sister Lasseter was a loyal and devoted daughter of the Methodist church. She was a faithful itinerant, gladly going with her husband wherever the church sent, or duty called him. No murmur of complaint was ever felt in her heart, or ever found expression through her lips. She counted it the joy of her life to be the wife of a faithful Methodist preacher. She counted no sacrifice on her part as too great if she might strengthen the hand and heart of her husband in the work to which he had given his life. She being dead, yet speaks on in her ministry of love to her friends and loved ones. She was faithful even unto death, and she wears the crown of life as the gift of the Lord and Giver of life.
